General No. 5730
No. 227

With reference to Para. 3 of his docket No 522 dated 21st November last, requests that, in future, the fees collected in all the vernacular schools may be separately shewn in the D.C. and B Statement No 8 and in the annual return, class 10 & 104. The fees from the English schools at the District and Sub-Division Head Quarters should alone be credited to the Imperial revenue, the fees from the English Classes of the Taluk Anglo Vernacular Schools being credited to the Municipalities in which such schools are established.
